Erik – Is this a fish tale?

That looks more like it.

Janice – EMG-guided botulinum injection for torticollis

Zaem – how to inject botulinum for blepharospasm

Sanjeev – explaining quantitative EMG

Luca – using SFEMG to demonstrate conduction block

Francis – getting ready to attack the ultrasound machine

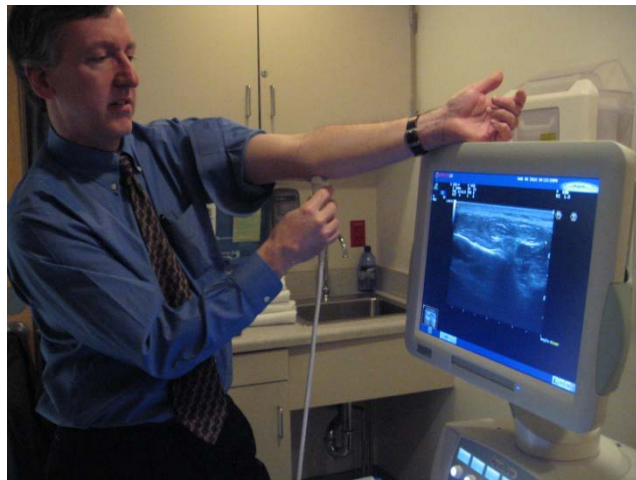

Chip – gleefully getting ready to demonstrate RNS on Jeff.

Vern – SFEMG during voluntary activation

Learning to do peripheral nerve ultrasound (why is the screen blank?)

Ah, there's my ulnar nerve!

The staff: Kevin, Angie, Carol

This must be the line for lunch - there's Eddie.
